

Top Ten Reasons to Choose Jeddah Private Schools

1. Ethical behavior is the heart of our students' notable Islamic beliefs
2. An enriched duallanguage program is provided in Arabic and English
3. Our curriculum promotes inquiry based learning that inspires creative and critical thinking skills
4. JPS students desire success via merit
5. We build strong partnerships with parents
6. We offer a strong learning environment that is focused on supporting students who are learning English as another language
7. Standardized testing in reading, language, and mathematics is used to measure student progress and academic growth
8. Our campus is purpose built with science and computer labs, art rooms, a large sports hall and a drama theatre
9. We believe that learning goes beyond the textbook and it involves the whole child
10. Our staff are chosen for their passion and expertise to provide the strongest programs possible in both Arabic and English

Early Childhood: Our engaging environments, and rich variety of resources set the scene for what you can expect to find on any given school day. The real value is in the strong sense of warmth, responsiveness and respect we generate between students, teachers and parents. Look in and you will see purposeful play and contextual learning. Whether individually or in groups, each child is a picture of happiness.

Lower School: A step into any classroom quickly encounters the amazing community spirit we proudly celebrate. We encourage students to be responsible for their learning choices. There is an adventure in the inquiry based learning we see in the confidence and enthusiasm of the students.

Middle School: Critical thinking and independence increase through guided practice and close observation. We encourage and support each student to incorporate their own experiences and knowledge into new materials and ideas. Students quickly become the driving force behind their own learning journey.

High School: High School is a natural place for young adults to explore and strengthen their personalities and embrace their individuality. We help them become confident, independent adults. We work together to ensure every student can see their future clearly and achieve personal success.

Why JPS?

We can say much about all that we believe and do for our wonderful students, but at the end of the day JPS exists to encourage lifelong learning. In everything we do, we remain curious and motivated by the world we live in.

Our Mission

Everyone is CELEBRATED; Everyone is CONNECTED; Everyone is CHALLENGED. This expresses our collective desire to enable achievement as a personal goal. It embodies our drive to enrich and contribute positively to the people around us, both near and far. Come to JPS and join this wonderful community of learners.
